Effie US and Ally Launch 2023 Effie Collegiate Brand Challenge

The leading digital financial services company challenges marketing students across the United States to create an effective integrated brand campaign.

NEW YORK, March 6, 2023 -- Effie Worldwide, a nonprofit that champions marketing effectiveness, announced that its 2023 Effie Collegiate program will be in collaboration with Ally. Modeled after the Effie Awards, the Effie Collegiate program engages marketing students to research, ideate, and develop comprehensive marketing plans to address real world business challenges.

For the Spring 2023 semester, college students across the country will be challenged by Ally and Effie to build Ally brand awareness, consumer advocacy, and consideration through a disruptive, integrated marketing campaign. Participating student teams will be briefed with a target audience, budget, and marketing challenge and have through April 5, 2023 to submit their projects.

All entries will be reviewed by a jury of marketers from across the Effie network, representing agencies, brands and media. The final teams will be invited to pitch their ideas to Ally's Marketing team in late Spring 2023.

"We believe the Effie Collegiate participants will offer fresh, innovative perspectives and solutions that will expand on the idea that we are all better off with an ally," said Andrea Brimmer, Chief Marketing and Public Relations Officer at Ally. "We entered the industry as disruptors who forever changed the way people bank, and we maintain that spirit through innovative marketing that engages consumers where they are on their financial journeys. I always learn something when I connect with emerging marketers and look forward to seeing the fantastic ideas they bring to the table.”

“Education sits at the core of Effie’s mission to support marketers throughout their careers and, ultimately, make marketing more effective” said Traci Alford, Global CEO of Effie Worldwide. “We’re proud to offer professional development, rooted in our 4-pillar framework, starting at the collegiate level and are very excited to be collaborating with Ally on this year’s Effie Collegiate program in the US. I hope that students have fun and gain insight into how to provide marketing solutions that grow businesses through this live business challenge. Ally has presented a great opportunity through their brief, and I look forward to seeing the results.”

Call for Entries for the Effie Collegiate x Ally Brand Challenge launched in January 2023. The Challenge is open to students who are enrolled in full/part-time graduate, undergraduate and portfolio programs at accredited educational institutions.
